FRIDAY SEPTEMBER 27, 2019

UD in the news Sept. 14-27

Inside Higher Ed highlighted the University's transparent tuition plan in a special report. The Conversation featured articles by Shelley Inglis, Human Rights Center executive director, and Chun Zhang, assistant marketing professor. Al Jazeera English, BBC News Mundo, CTV in Canada and The Washington Post also sought faculty expertise to explain current events.

Cincinnati NPR affiliate WVXU welcomed the Human Rights Center to discuss its upcoming conference. School psychologist Susan Davies was part of Columbus, Ohio, NPR affiliate WOSU's Wednesday Wellness segment to talk about concussions.

Dayton Daily News columnist Tom Archdeacon wrote a column about the University's new writer's residency honoring stand-out professional basketball player and former UD student Roger Brown, which will explore the intersection of sports and social justice.

Dayton TV station WDTN covered Culture Fest and student Shannon Stanforth wrote a piece about a partnership between the University of Dayton River Stewards and the Little Miami Watershed Network. The Dayton Business Journal also featured the University among its healthiest employers.
